

Disciplinary Regulations

Article 1.- The Board of Directors of the Society of Hispanic Professionals of the Hazleton Area, may open disciplinary inquiry into those partners that fail to comply with what is laid down in the statutes of the society.

Article 2.- To initiate a dossier, it will be necessary that there is an agreement in the Board of Directors, which shall designate from among its members, an instructor and a secretary.

Article 3.- Once appointed the instructor and the Registrar, its appointment will be communicated to the person concerned, as well as the opening of the case and the reasons for the same, reasoned in a statement of objections.

Article 4.- The Member, object of the dossier shall have a period of fifteen days to submit its statement of defense or to be heard by the Board of Directors.

Article 5.- At the expiry of the period referred to in the previous article, the Board shall decide on the dossier initiated, notifying the resolution adopted to those concerned within a maximum of five days.

Article 6.- The sanctions adopted by the Board of the Society of Hispanic Professionals of the Hazleton Area, will have a precautionary measure until they are ratified by the General Assembly and may be appealed by the punished before it. The agreements of the General Assembly in this regard, only may be appealed before the Courts of Justice.